

Placement Role Description JORVIK Collections Up-Close Placement February/March or April 2019
About The JORVIK Viking Centre	The JORVIK Viking Centre was first opened in 1984 after a five year long excavation. It stands on the site of the famous Coppergate excavations which revealed some of the most famous and outstanding discoveries in modern archaeology. Find out more at https://www.jorvikvikingcentre.co.uk/about/
Purpose of the Role	Placements gain an opportunity to be a part of the Centre and learn how we offer archaeological and collections engagement for our visitors. As a placement you will help offer enhanced access and engagement to this unique collection and the rich archaeology of the site. Through two collections of finds from the excavation you will offer visitors a chance to further explore the dig and the discoveries it made.
Main Tasks	To offer 'Collections Up-Close' opportunities at JORVIK with finds from the Coppergate excavations. This is undertaken through an outdoor collection of finds to orientate people with their location on the original dig and an indoor collection delivered to help visitors explore the techniques and discoveries of the dig.
Skills	Placements should have a passion for York's Viking past & the Coppergate dig and a desire to contribute their time and enthusiasm to offer additional enhancement to our visitor experience during the busy holiday periods 13th February - 3rd March or 15th – 28th April 2019. Placements will need to have bright, bubbly and positive manner and should be confident initiating conversation with a wide range of people and ages. They should show a strong customer focus and clear verbal communication skills.
Areas of Interest	This is an ideal role for anyone who is interested in Viking history, archaeological and heritage interpretation and gaining hands-on experience of finds handling.
Person you can report to	The Head of Volunteering will act as your main point of coordination with further daily support from the Site Managers.
Induction and Training	As part of the placement it is helpful if you can attend the 'training day' on 4 th or 13 th February to learn the collection and skills needed for the role. Please talk to us if you are not local to York and this would cause you a problem with your travel arrangements.
Hours	We ask each placement to undertake a further 9 full days (9.30 am-5.30 pm) as a block period of five days each week Monday – Sunday during 13 th February – 3 rd March or 15 th – 28 th April 2019.
Uniform	You will be given a placement shirt/Jumper to wear which we ask you to team with a pair of dark smart trousers and smart shoes.
